CONJUNCTION POINT OF DANUBE, INN AND ILZ

1

Three rivers from three directions meet at the “Dreiflüsseeck”: Danube, Inn and Ilz offer an impressive natural spectacle. Looking downstream, you can see the black Ilz streaming into the blue-brown Danube from the left and the green Inn joining from the right.

TOWN HALL (CARILLON, BAROQUE COUNCIL CHAMBERS)

The Town Hall of Passau consists of one large Council Chamber (Großer Rathaussaal) and one smaller Council Chamber (Kleiner Rathaussaal). The Passau artist Ferdinand Wagner worked on the decoration of the hall between 1887 and 1890; his paintings show various historical scenes. “The Wedding of Emperor Leopold” and “The Entry of Kriemhild” were completed in May 1892 and July 1893, respectively.

ST. STEPHEN'S CATHEDRAL (ORGAN CONCERTS)

The magnificent building with its white towers and blue-green domes is the crucial baroque church north of the Alps. The architects Carlo Lurago and Giovanni Battista Carlone gave the church their own Italian character after a fire in 1662. The ornately interior holds an exceptional treasure: the biggest cathedral organ in the world with 17,974 pipes and 233 registers.

Cathedral opening times :
daily 6:30 a.m. - 6 p.m.
Organ concerts: May - October working days 12 a.m. and
Thursday 7:30 p.m. (exc. hols.)

PILGRIMAGE CHURCH “MARIAHILF”

High above the district Innstadt rises the baroque pilgrimage church Mariahilf with its prominent towers and the adjacent St. Paul monastery. The baroque monastery from the 17th century was of great significance as a place of pilgrimage to Saint Mary. A covered stairway with 321 steps leads up to the pilgrimage chapel. The walkway is adorned with numerous votive tablets.

ROMAN MUSEUM “KASTELL BOIOTRO”

The Roman museum of the fort Boiotro occupies a late medieval house in the district Innstadt and incorporates the foundations of late Roman Boiotro: Since 2021 it is part of the UNESCO world heritage "Roman Danube Limes". The museum exhibits 600 objects. Together with references to ancient sources and numerous models these illustrate the 400 years history of Roman rule in this town on the northern frontier of the Empire.

MUSEUM OF MODERN ART WÖRLÉN

In 1990 the Museum of Modern Art Wörlén was founded by the architect Hanns Egon Wörlén (1915-2014) in the Old Town of Passau. The Museum's extensive fine arts collection, which is based on the inheritance of the painter Georg Philipp Wörlén (1886-1954), contains artworks from Expressionism to Contemporary Art. Since its founding, the MMK has shown more than 300 exhibitions.

MUSEUM AT THE CATHEDRAL

The Museum at the Passau Cathedral displays masterpieces of art ranging from the Romanesque period up to the present. The so-called major court hall was the site of the festivities celebrating the wedding of Emperor Leopold I of Austria to Eleonora, daughter of the Palatine Count and Duke of Palatine-Neuburg in 1676. Today the room is used for special exhibitions, focusing on contemporary art.

DACHSHUND MUSEUM – “KLEINE RESIDENZ”

10

The world's first and unique Dachshund Museum is located right across the New Bishop's Residence. The dachshund – a philosophy – is shown in an exhibition that contains the world's largest collection of a total of more than 9,000 exhibits. The 100th anniversary of the Free State of Bavaria, the dachshund in nobility or the dachshund in hunting are focal points in the museum.

FRESCO MUSEUM NIEDERBURG

11

The fresco museum Niedernburg is a reminder of St. Mary's Church (Marienkirche – 12th century), which was destroyed by the great fires of the 17th century. The Romanesque vestibule has been preserved and with its secco paintings it is an impressive testimonial of Christian faith in the High Middle Ages. The more than 800-year-old wall paintings belong to the most valuable cultural assets of Romanesque art in southern Germany.

"ART ALLEY" HÖLLGASSE — AGON PASSAU E. V.

13

At the end of the 20th century various studios and decorative arts workshops moved into rooms on the ground floor in historic Höllgasse. Inspired by this, AGON Passau e.V. was founded in 2000 together with other artists of Passau. The translation of the Ancient Greek word AGON means competition. It emphasizes that the artists meet the challenge of a creative contest.

HALS CASTLE – CRUSADERS & CITY FOUNDER

Once one of the largest castles in Lower Bavaria! An Hungarian queen resided here, war was declared on King Wenzel of Bohemia, Bamberg's Bishop Albrecht was imprisoned - a knightly search for traces through the buildings and vaults of the Halsler Count's Castle. Those who are brave put on heavy armor ... sturdy shoes & torch required!
